Cardiff Local Authority ALN Drop In

for young people, children and their parents/carers

The sessions provide an opportunity to ask any questions you may have around the new Additional Learning Needs system and the processes you may come across. These sessions are a great opportunity to:

- Meet other families going through the same or similar experiences
- Share your thoughts and opinions to help shape our services.
- Learn about the new ALN system in Wales

Sessions will be held on a monthly basis, in hybs across the authority.

Find upcoming sessions by scanning the QR code or visiting:

For more information around anything relating to ALN, please visit our website at: www.cardiff.gov.uk/ALN

Parent Reference Group

Cardiff Local Authority's Inclusion team run an ALN Parent Reference Group. This group works with parents and carers to ensure the involvement of people with lived experience in the preparation, development and reviewing of shared information for parents or carers regarding the new Additional Learning Needs Act and its implementation. If you would like more information about or to become part of our parent reference group, please contact Lucy Leigh on; lucy.leigh@cardiff.gov.uk
