

Weekly News! – 20.06.2025

Updates

· As you are aware, Estyn is inspecting our school next week and would like the views of our parents and carers. You are invited to meet with the inspectors after school on Monday 23rd June 2025 to give your views. Refreshments will be available along with childcare, if required. If you were not able to complete the parent questionnaire, you can submit your views to the school on Monday morning and we will ensure that they are passed on to Estyn.

· The PTA are so excited to see you all at the Summer Fayre tomorrow, please see below info:

There will be card machines in the Cafe, BBQ, Biryani and Raffle stalls and all of the other stalls will be cash only. We will also have QR codes dotted around if you wish to pay that way.

Biryani is available from 11.30am

The farm animals will be situated on the field depending on where the best shade is, there will be an honesty box and a QR code to donate if you don't have cash.

The police and fire service are attending however they may need to leave if they receive a called.

They will be selling cold and hot drinks, burgers, sausages, vegetable biryani and accompaniments along with cakes, fresh popcorn and ice pops.

· This year's Funday is taking place on Thursday 17th July 2025. Timings for the Funday are as follows:

Key Stage 2 (Year 3 – 6) will take part 9.30am until 12.00pm

Morning Nursery will take part 9.30am – 11.30am

Foundation Phase (Reception – Year 2) and Afternoon Nursery will take part 1.15pm – 3.30pm

Free Mandarin lessons for Children:

Cardiff Confucius Institute are currently exploring the feasibility of establishing an online school for children, to operate outside regular school hours. Based on the level of interest and participants' preferences, they aim to offer these classes over the summer and/or during the next school term. If pupils are interested in learning Mandarin and discovering Chinese culture, please tell them to complete this expression of interest form.
